

Wildflower Reflections: Families and Legacies: Challenging Decisions

If you think estate planning is a boring topic then you haven't been to one of Dr. Marsha Goetting's presentations. She has a reputation for her ability to make estate planning interesting. She also has kept participants actively involved by giving them the opportunity to answer questions by using response clickers. Dr. Goetting has enhanced her presentation by combining her appreciation of Montana wildflowers with her expertise in legacy/estate planning to offer residents of Park City and the surrounding area an exciting program: Wildflower Reflections: Families and Legacies...Challenging Decisions. Plan to attend the session November 29 from 6:30 – 8:30 at the Park City High School in room 111 (FCS Room). You will learn who will receive your property if you pass away without a written will. You will discover how you can avoid probate with the Montana estate planning tools of POD designations, TODs, and beneficiary deeds. Dr. Goetting will also highlight a Montana statute that allows you to distribute items that do not have a title. Time will be allotted for answering questions of the participants. Don't miss this opportunity!!!

Financial and Estate Planning

Thursday, November 29
6:30 – 8:30
FCS Room – Park City High School

Marsha A. Goetting, Ph.D., CFP®, CFCS is a Professor and Extension Family Economics Specialist at Montana State University in Bozeman.

She has presented over 800 workshops reaching over 25,000 Montanans with financial and estate planning information. She has also authored over 75 MontGuides and bulletins and has received national, regional, and state awards for her financial management and estate planning programs.